

Chivalry-Now

The Code of Male Ethics

Is it true that chivalry is dead?

That's for you to decide!

We are seeking men of all ages and backgrounds to join us on our quest to discover what it means to be a man, and how a new form of chivalry can lead to a richer, fuller, more rewarding life. Together we will explore what chivalry is, and, just as importantly, what it is not!

We offer a fellowship that includes round table discussions, films, activities and social events, reading & examining stories that will bring new meaning to our lives (Arthurian Romances, Tolkien, etc.)

Our goal is to improve our:

- life principles
- relationships with women
- friendships with men
- personal self-esteem
- work, community and society
- our place in the natural world

"The age of chivalry is gone." So says Edmund Burke's famous quote (often misquoted as "...chivalry is dead"). The truth is that chivalry never died, nor is our need for it any less. In countless books, plays & movies it's high ideals hint at who we really are.

Don't just learn it! Live it!
